DOR To Hold Unclaimed Property Auction

ATLANTA—The Georgia Department of Revenue will hold a public auction of unclaimed safe-deposit-box contents at the Cobb County Civic Center in Marietta on Oct. 18.

“We will be auctioning off approximately 500 lots containing a wide variety of jewelry and coins,” said Revenue Commissioner T. Jerry Jackson.

“All items will be on display and available for viewing at the Civic Center on Tuesday, Oct. 17 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. and again Wednesday, Oct. 18, from 8 to 10 a.m.”, said Cheri A. McGiboney, manager of the Department’s unclaimed property section. “The auction will begin at 10 a.m. on Oct. 18.”

Acceptable methods of payment are cash, cashier’s check, certified funds or letter of credit.

Manheim Auction Government Services, Inc. of Atlanta will conduct the auction. Individuals with questions or desiring more information can contact Manheim at 1-800-222-9885.

The Cobb County Civic Center is located at 548 South Marietta Parkway.
